

Mentor-Protégé Programs in Federal Contracting

When:

February 23, 2021

11:00am - 12:30pm (Eastern Time)

Where:

Online Webinar

This webinar will cover:

- Mentor-Protégé Program overview
- How to develop a mentor-protégé relationship
- Program benefits for mentors
- Program benefits for protégés
- Recent changes to the program
- Joint-venturing

Are you interested in competing for federal contracts, but feel your business lacks the systems, skills, or knowledge to make it happen? A mentor-protégé arrangement may be right for your business. This webinar will provide an overview of the mentor-protégé relationship with a focus on the DoD mentor-protégé program, as well as the Small Business Administration's All Small Mentor-Protégé Program.

The All Small Mentor-Protégé Program (ASMPP) was established in 2016 to extend SBA approved mentor-protégé relationships to every small business. This dynamic program seeks to develop strong protégé firms through mentor-provided business development assistance, and to help them successfully compete for government contracts.

There is no cost to attend, but pre-registration is required.
